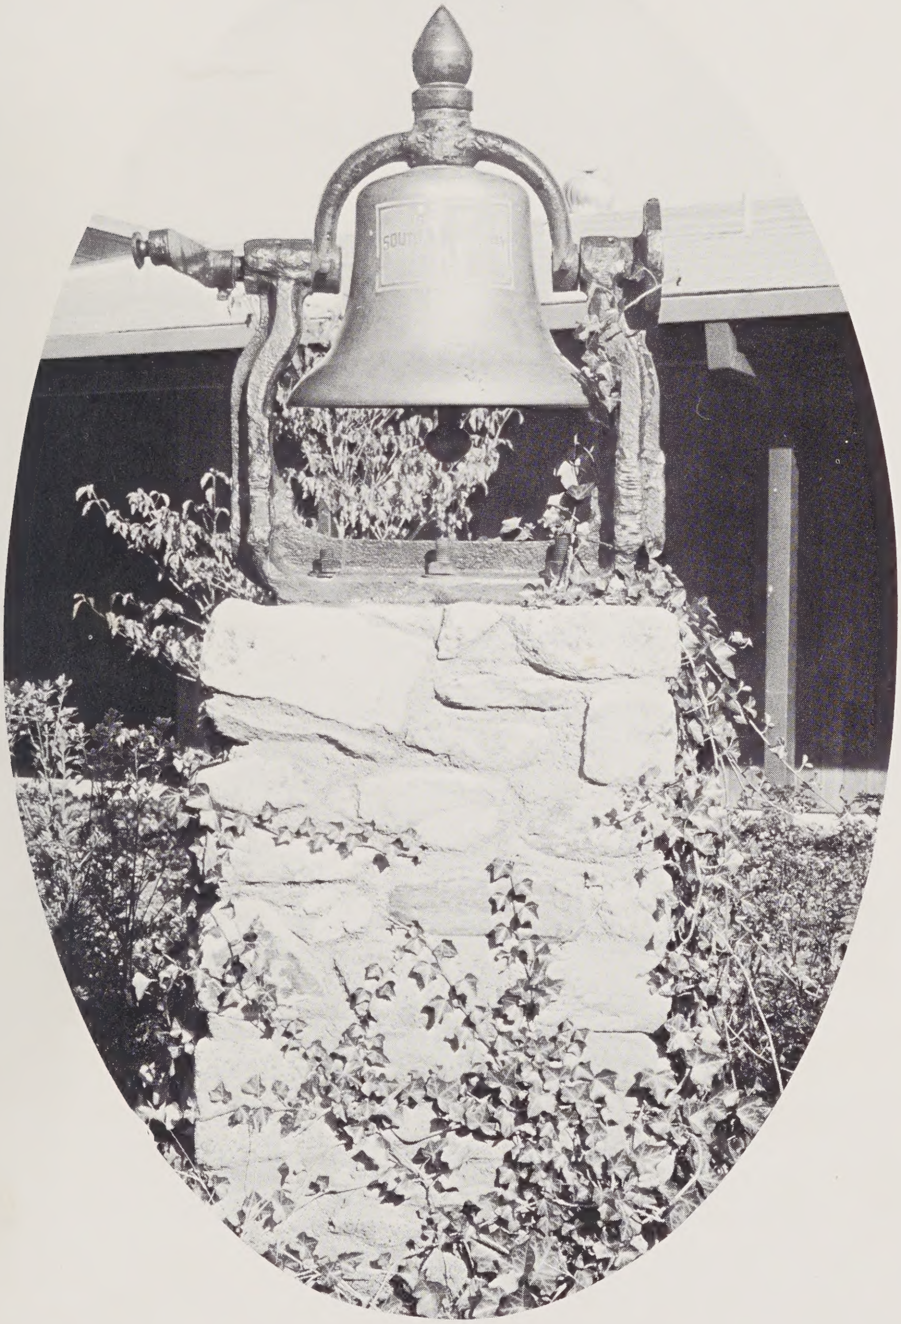
The Silhouette



Asheville Country Day School

The silhouette of the Highlander, symbol of pride, symbol of independence, symbol of loyalty, stands to us as the symbol of our school. The plaid of his kilt represents the diversity of school life; the sword at his belt the challenge the school presents us to better ourselves. The strains of his pipes echo memories of friendship and auld lang syne. Though over the years our clan may grow and change, the spirit of the Highlander will remain. Though we are far away, may the Highlander always bring us back, and through this silhouette may we never forget our precious hours at Country Day.

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And Never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,
We'll take a cup of kindness yet
For auld lang syne.

And there's a hand, my trusty friend,
And gie's a hand o' thine;
And we'll take a cup of kindness yet
For auld lang syne."

The clan—a family of friends, bound together by the ties of memory, the remembrance of the hours spent in intimate comradeship, the thrill of being a Highlander.

SITUATIO

The Highlanders in their festive moments—For a brief while members of the clan assume different appearances, but always they are Highlanders, and the feeling of gaiety remains long after the parties are over.

Dedication

MRS. HENRY MacFADYEN

For more than a decade she has worked with imagination and great devotion for the good of the school; her generosity, kindness, and leadership have been an example to teachers and students alike; she has truly given a part of herself to Country Day. It is therefore with love and deep appreciation that we dedicate the Silhouette of 1964 to Mrs. Mac.

Dramatics

For a brief while the Highlanders
Step across the borders of time and place
To become people of other lands and other ages.
When they return from this world of make-believe,
They carry back with them the wisdom and poise
Which they have acquired as actors and actresses of the stage.

POCKET BOOKS

In the long history of the world, only a few generations have been granted the role of defending freedom in its hour of maximum danger. I do not shrink from this responsibility—I welcome it. I do not believe that any of us would exchange places with any other people or any other generation. The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve it—and the glow from that fire can truly light the world.
